

FIND YOUR MAGIC AGAIN

Get Your Mind In Check

We are going to create our own affirmations and change the words that we speak.

HI, I'M STEPHANIE!

I'M A TECH AND SYSTEMS AUTOMATIONS SPECIALIST AND CLARITY BUSINESS COACH, HERE TO HELP YOU MAKE YOUR BUSINESS ABSOLUTELY MAGICAL!

After ending a terrible relationship with my corporate job, I decided to go all in with my Virtual Assisting business.

As a mom of two special needs boys, I was looking for something that would give me control of my own life and schedule - and Virtual Assisting allowed me to do just that.

My business grew and I realized that my passion stemmed from all things Tech, so I niched immediately.

As I continued to deep dive into new systems and perfect my craft, I discovered that what truly made my heart sing was sharing sparks of my magic with those that were interested in starting their own service based businesses.

WHY DOES WHAT WE SAY MATTER?

How do you talk to your best friend? Do you hype them up? (Of course, you do...you are an incredible friend!)

Tell them how amazing and unique they are? (Did I mention you being an incredible friend?)

Encourage them to follow their dreams? (Well yeah why wouldn't they be going after their dreams!?)

And bolster their confidence by telling them that they are capable of ANYTHING? (Because they are, they are amazing at all the things!)

Now... do you talk to yourself the same way?

“EITHER YOU MUST CONTROL YOUR THOUGHTS OR THE OUTSIDE FORCES WILL CONTROL THEM AND BE WARNED THAT THE OUTSIDE FORCES USUALLY CONSIST OF FEARS, WORRIES AND DOUBTS.” -
MADDY MALHOTRA

Stepping into your element isn't just about figuring out your niche or learning about how to attract your Unicorn Clients...It starts with learning how to be comfortable with yourself. And not only accepting who you are... but celebrating it!

For a lot of us, that feels really hard at first. Maybe you've spent most of your life being told you're "too much," and did your best to make yourself smaller. But the truth is, there is only one YOU on this Earth. You were put here for a reason and there are people out there who need you to show up as your fullest, brightest self. Who NEED you in all your "wholeness!"

Once you start pouring into yourself, talking to yourself with kindness, and giving yourself the energy and attention you deserve - the rest all starts to fall in place. You'll find the confidence to build the business of your dreams, attract those people who are meant to be in your life, and feel deserving of the life you've been wishing for.

Are you ready to step "into your element" and start harnessing the magic that is YOU?!

When we change the way we say things out loud and in our heads, we begin to see the changes happening around us.

The "work" becomes incredibly easier and everything starts falling into place.

CREATE YOUR BOSS BISH PLAYLIST

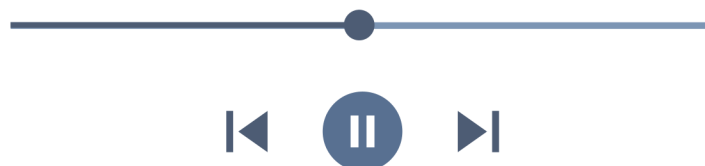

OK so this one is straight personal and just for you. Everyone has a different one and it is all about your own taste but do this!

Hop on Spotify and create a playlist full of songs that make you feel powerful, feel good, automatically switch you from a shit mood to, "I'm going to take over the Mother Fucking world!"

For me it is divas...yup...that's right...DIVAS...lol and I play them loud and sing loud and BADLY and I feel so much better after I do it. This is the most freeing thing you can do for yourself.
